RAIL is in italics.

Librarian: Replay performances in late spring will need a smaller chorus...24-60. Tim will talk with Jason about Prescott seating numbers. We don't have the music yet.

Finance: The financials, including the trip package and flights, are all in good shape. On the 23rd of March the $40 for the bus is due as well as the t-shirt money.

Manhattan Productions (NY trip): There will be 200 singers in the amassed chorus. We will wear our concert uniforms. The music we will sing alone is as follows: Pilgrims Hymn by Stephen Paulus, and Psalms of Ascension, an original composition by Dan Forrest based on psalms 124 and 126.

Council meetings for remainder of the year: Our next meeting will be on April 19 and there will not be a May meeting. The next meeting will be at Paula Strano's house.

Elections: Paula will manage the election process. We need two sop reps and one each of the other sections, a secretary, a social co-chair and a vice president. We also need an apprentice for the finance position. Election will be on April 6, 2015. Paula will make an announcement at next rehearsal, and then people are encouraged to contact their section reps to register their interest.

Tech update: Tom Cunningham will look into getting a program to look for ways to do real time attendance.

TPS: The Replay performances will be on the Saturday and will be an afternoon and evening performances. We will not perform on Friday night.

Handbook: Ellwood has suggested a change to the handbook. After a full council discussion of his suggested change, Ellwood and Tom will work out the final recommendation and the Council will vote on it at the April meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 6:10 pm
